WHY YOU SHOULD ATTEND

Join ASGE's esteemed faculty who will review and highlight a number of emerging diagnostic and therapeutic endoscopic techniques outlined in the literature and their implication in clinical practice.

The course begins with key discussions on Barrett's surveillance and ablation, reviewing several societal guidelines that include a 2016 guideline from the American College of Gastroenterology (ACG), 2012 and 2018 guidelines from the American Society for Gastrointestinal Endoscopy (ASGE) and a 2011 guideline and 2016 expert review from the American Gastroenterological Association (AGA).

Faculty will then discuss ESD versus EMR for polyps. EMR is the most commonly used technique for resection of large distal colorectal adenomas, yet there are some important limitations. This will be compared to endoscopic submucosal dissection (ESD), which is more technically difficult, resulting in longer procedural time. However, ESD is promising due to the high en-bloc resection rates and very low recurrence rates. Presentations will highlight healthcare resource utilization and costs along with perceived quality of life among patients.

Additional topics will focus on duodenal cancer, the most common cause of death in familial adenomatous polyposis. This will be followed by a review of the revised Atlanta classification for pancreatic fluid collection in acute pancreatitis and how this facilitates standardized reporting of clinical and imaging data as well as objective assessment of treatment, fostering effective communication among the clinical team.

And if you are looking for more topics, faculty will discuss emerging endoscopic diagnostics and therapeutics for pancreatic cystic lesions and biliary strictures. Emerging EUS and ERCP innovations will be discussed and put in context with the existing guidelines regarding the diagnosis and management of neoplastic cysts and biliary neoplasia.

Our program is designed to engage the audience with faculty through audience response along with question, answer and discussion. Attendees are encouraged to enjoy lunch with the speakers and discuss challenging cases and techniques.

WHAT YOU WILL LEARN

Upon completion of this educational activity, physicians will be able to:

- Recognize current standards for diagnosing and reporting Barrett's esophagus
- Identify current and new techniques for detecting upper and lower GI neoplasia
- Describe techniques for management of pancreatic fluid collections arising in acute pancreatitis
- Recognize new approaches for treating biliary neoplasia
- Identify new endoscopic therapies for GI bleeding

WHO SHOULD ATTEND

This course has been specifically designed for practitioners of gastrointestinal endoscopy, especially gastroenterologists, gastrointestinal surgeons, gastrointestinal nurses, and fellows in training. This course is equally relevant to those in private practice and academic practice.

SESSION THREE: REFINING THE APPROACH TO PANCREATIC FLUID COLLECTIONS

10:40–11:00 am	It Isn't a Pseudocyst: How Revised Atlanta Classification Guides Decision Making Tyler Stevens, MD, FASGE
11:00–11:20 am	Endoscopic Pathways for PFCs: Do All Roads Lead to LAMS? Amrita Sethi, MD, FASGE
11:20–11:40 am	I put in a LAMS, Now What? Managing Walled Off Necrosis Beyond Access Nabeel Azeem, MD
11:40 am–Noon	Panel Discussion and Q&A
Noon–1:00 pm	Lunch

SESSION FOUR: EMERGING ENDOSCOPIC DIAGNOSTICS AND THERAPEUTICS FOR PANCREATICOBILIARY NEOPLASIA

1:10–1:30 pm	When Should I Order EUS? Comparison of Guidelines Tamas A. Gonda, MD, FASGE
1:30–1:50 pm	Advances in Biliary and Pancreatic Diagnostics Tamas A. Gonda, MD, FASGE
1:50–2:10 pm	Ablative Techniques for Pancreaticobiliary Lesions Prashant S. Kedia, MD, FASGE
2:10–2:25 pm	Panel Discussion and Q&A

SESSION FIVE: POTPOURRI

	DEBATE: Advanced Polyp Resection
2:25–2:45 pm	Tried and True, EMR is the Way to Go Uzma D. Siddiqui, MD, FASGE
2:45–3:05 pm	Out with EMR, Make Room for ESD Dennis Yang, MD, FASGE
3:05–3:25 pm	A Rational Approach to Elusive Small Bowel Bleeding Shivanga Kothari, MD, FASGE
3:25–3:45 pm	Evolving Management for Gastric Variceal Bleeding: Getting Out of "Sticky" Situations Vani Konda, MD, FASGE
3:45–4:05 pm	New Tricks for Bleeders: Updating Your Travel Cart for Every Scenario Prashant S. Kedia, MD, FASGE

EXPLORE SAN ANTONIO!

A picturesque city in the heart of Texas, San Antonio—home to the legendary Alamo and world famous River Walk—hosts a vibrant mix of culture, cuisine, legendary architecture and moving history. The city’s heritage and traditions are rich, as are its modern pleasures. With a cosmopolitan blend of top-notch golf courses, remarkable dining and nightlife options, art galleries, spas, theme parks and shopping, there’s no shortage of authentic experiences—most of which are just steps from hotels and the Henry B. González Convention Center.

ACCOMMODATIONS

The American College of Gastroenterology (ACG) has reserved rooms at a meeting rate at six hotels in close proximity to the Henry B. Gonzalez Convention Center. The Grand Hyatt San Antonio, located at 600 East Market, San Antonio, Texas will be the official ACG headquarters hotel.

Reserve Your Hotel Room

We strongly recommend you book your room now through the housing website at acg.registration.meetingsites.net. Do not book with any housing bureau that contacts you directly. Reservations will be accepted until October 2, 2019 and are subject to availability. You will receive a confirmation email from the hotel when you complete your reservation. Meeting Sites Resource is the official housing bureau for ACG 2019 and will never contact you unsolicited. ACG 2019 and Meeting Sites Resource cannot guarantee that other housing companies are legitimate and cannot guarantee your reservation at ACG 2019 if you book outside of the official housing bureau.

CONTINUING MEDICAL EDUCATION

The American Society for Gastrointestinal Endoscopy (ASGE) is accredited by the Accredited Council for Continuing Medical Education to provide continuing medical education for physicians. ASGE designates this live activity for a maximum of 7.25 AMA PRA Category 1 Credits™. Physicians should claim only credits commensurate with the extent of their participation in the activity.

Successful completion of this CME activity enables the participant to earn up to 7.25 MOC points in the American Board of Internal Medicine's (ABIM) MOC program. It is the CME activity provider's responsibility to submit participant completion information to ACCME for the purpose of granting ABIM MOC points.

Cancellation Policy

Written notice of cancellation and requests for refunds must be sent to registration@gi.org by October 2, 2019. After this date, no refunds will be possible. Registration cancellations are not accepted by telephone. There will be a $50 administrative fee assessed for cancellation of any paid event. Refunds will be issued after the meeting.

Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA)

Attendees at ACG 2019 who need additional reasonable accommodations or who have special needs should contact the ACG office at registration@gi.org no later than October 2, 2019.

“Faculty presentations were superb and informative with very up-to-date recommendations!”
