

American Society for Gastrointestinal Endoscopy

Advanced Practice Provider Onboarding for the GI Practice

July 11-12, 2020

A Livestream Event

An inaugural course for APPs —new or returning to GI— APP supervisors,
practice administrators,
and physician
leaders

American Society for
Gastrointestinal Endoscopy

COURSE DESCRIPTION

Advanced Practice Providers (APPs) are crucial members of the gastroenterology clinical team in delivering high quality and efficient care to patients. This new ASGE course examines GI-specific essentials for APPs—new or returning to GI—and provide best practices to assist in navigating their role in all GI practice settings. Through a mix of didactic lectures and interactive sessions with case studies, taught by leading experts in the field, this course will serve as a critical resource for units that want to create an effective APP/physician collaboration and successfully and smoothly integrate new APPs into their GI team.

Course Directors:

Joseph J. Vicari, MD, MBA, FASGE
Rockford Gastroenterology Associates
Rockford, IL

Jill Olmstead, MSN, ANP-C, CCS-P, FAANP
St. Joseph Health
Fullerton, CA

WHAT YOU WILL LEARN

Upon completion of this educational activity, participants will be able to:

- Recognize key aspects of scope of practice in GI consultation as reflected in proper documentation.
- Summarize various endoscopic procedures and how best to prepare the patient for endoscopy.
- Identify common codes used for GI consult endoscopic procedures.
- Discuss the role of the GI APP by chronicling both inpatient and outpatient workdays.
- Outline tools and resources needed to develop an onboarding program for the GI APP.
- List key elements of a high-performing, quality GI team.

WHO SHOULD ATTEND

Advanced Practice Providers that are new or need a refresher in GI. APP supervisors, physician leaders, and administrators responsible for the onboarding of APPs and for the development of an effective APP/physician collaboration.
