■ WHY YOU SHOULD PARTICIPATE

This ASGE Master Class will feature a state of the art didactic discussion of the diagnosis and management of patients with gastroesophageal reflux disease and Barrett's esophagus. The course directors will address the basic tenets of "high value" endoscopy in patients with gastroesophageal reflux disease (GERD) and Barrett's esophagus and provide a detailed approach to the diagnosis and management of GERD with a focus on patients with refractory GERD. These experts will also provide recommendations regarding management of difficult to treat esophageal strictures and provide a comprehensive approach to several controversies in Barrett's esophagus including screening, surveillance and endoscopic eradication therapy.

■ WHAT YOU WILL LEARN

A comprehensive list of clinically relevant topics will be discussed, including:

- How to perform high quality EGD in GERD and Barrett's esophagus patients
- Optimizing value of high resolution manometry, reflux monitoring (Bravo and impedance), histology and EndoFlip
- Management of refractory GERD
- Difficult to treat esophageal strictures
- Appropriate utilization of PPI therapy
- Latest advances in minimally invasive approaches in GERD management (endoscopic and surgical)
- Screening and surveillance in Barrett's esophagus
- Advanced diagnostic techniques in Barrett's esophagus - optimizing detection of dysplasia
- Appropriate selection of endoscopic eradication therapy
- Primer on endoscopic resection, radiofrequency ablation and cryotherapy
